

Constantinos Papadakis, Director

Constantinos Papadakis is responsible for asset management and investor reporting at Peaceable Street Capital. Mr. Papadakis has a wealth of domestic and international asset management experience that extends across all asset classes and includes both development and operating properties.

Prior to joining the Peaceable team, Mr. Papadakis directed the asset management function at Bleso Properties, a New York real estate investment and development firm. In this role he managed several departments including Property Management, Accounting, Operations and Investor Relations, and oversaw a team of over 200 employees. At Cronos Management Group, a real estate management firm, he was involved in acquisitions, management and dispositions of multiple assets in the U.S. and Europe. He also led equity and debt financing efforts for various companies, and managed complex repositioning projects with multiple teams across different regions.

Mr. Papadakis received his Master of Science in Finance from Baruch College, and his Bachelors from Hunter College's Thomas Hunter Honors Program. He is also a Project Management Professional (PMP).
